Message from Cantor Socolof

Some Purim Torah

The Talmud tells us (Baba Meisa 36c) that we are required to attend the house of study. Should one go alone, or with someone else? Rav Kahuna says, Alone, as it says, And I alone escaped to tell you (Job 1). Rabbi Shmabbai says, With someone else, as it says, If you go with me then I will go, and if you will not go with me, I will not go. (Judges 4). Rav Kahuna said, This is not a fitting example, since it is quoting Barak in a conversation with Deborah the prophetess. There is a midrash that says that they were once betrothed, but he called off the marriage in the middle of the ceremony, when she had only begun to walk around him for the seven times. Thus it was always said of her that she had been around the Barak.

How often should one go to the house of study? Rabbi Obiwan says, The pious go three times a day. Rabbi BooBoo ben Yogi says, What of those who are not so pious? Can one be almost pious? Rabbi Obiwan says, Yes. Singers are almost pious, as they are lamed-heyniks. Rabbi ben Yogi said, How's that? Rabbi Obiwan said, La,la,la,la.

Rabbi Booyah asks: How shall we get there (to the house of study)? On foot. As it says, If you walk in My ways, and if you keep My charge, you, too, shall judge My house, and you, too, shall guard My courtyards, and I will give you free access among these who stand by. (Zechariah 3) Rabbi Gotz said, my teacher, Rabbi Aynzeh taught that we learn it elsewhere: Go walk around on the earth (Zechariah 6). Rabbi Sensen objected, One does not walk when one can ride. As it says, I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to me (Exodus 19). Rabbi Nudnik asked, Was that in coach or first class? Rabbi Chacum answered, Even God couldn't afford 600,000 seats in first class. Rabbi Aryehboom asked, No frequent flier miles? Rabbi TzuneH said, If God is everywhere, how would he even earn frequent flier miles? Rabbi Aryehboom responded, from the angels. Rabbi TzuneH: They're non-transferable.

Rav Effes said, Not by air, but in a wagon, as it says in the Kaddish: b'agalah uv'zman kariv (in a wagon, and quickly). Rabbi Nuttin said, do not read b'agalah (in a wagon), but Ba'al gilah (master of Jello). Rav Anan said, Another county heard from. Do not read b'agalah (in a wagon), or, God forbid, Ba'al gilah (master of Jello), but bagelleh (a small bagel). This refers to the wheels on the wagon, which resembled small bagels. There is a midrash that tells of an alien who lands on Earth and breaks one of his landing wheels doing so. As he searches for a replacement, he passes a bagel shop, and sees that the bagels are the same size and shape as the wheels he needs. He goes in and asks to buy one of the wheels. "These aren't wheels," says the fellow behind the counter, "these are bagels." "What are they used for?" asks the alien. "They're to eat," says the fellow, and hands one to the alien. The alien takes a bite, chews and says, "You know, these would be great with lox and cream cheese."

Some say cream cheese, some say butter.

Temple Beth El President's Message

I often wonder why people are quick to criticize or only look at the negative and do not appreciate what they do have. I would like to share a couple passages from the book, MY STROKE OF LUCK by Kirk Douglas.

"But maybe, after death, you come before that mythical Man with a long beard, sitting on a throne. You stand before Him, puny and timid. Then you ask, 'Is this Heaven?' And He roars back, 'Heaven! You just came from there!'"

And as your eyes widen, He continues, 'Ingrate! Didn't you like the sunrise, the sunset, the moon and the stars? Weren't you pleased with the mountains, forests, rivers, and streams that I gave you?' I remain silent as the voice roars. 'Didn't you like the fragrant flowers and fruits and vegetables I gave you? And when I nurtured those plants with rain, you complained because you couldn't play golf. Ingrate! That was heaven!'"

Sound familiar? What can we do to change the way we think and act? Imagine what the world would be like.

Here is the second passage:

"The world is filled with people who have suffered from one misfortune or another. The only thing that sets one apart from the rest is the desire and the attempt to help others. People who reach out beyond their pain, out into the world in a trusting way -they are the ones who make a difference."

At this time of Purim, we are supposed to help those in need but who is to stop us from doing it year around? On March 11th, we will join as a community for Havdalah and a fun filled Megillah reading with Cantor Socolof and Rabbi Kail followed by a Purim party for the adults. On Sunday March 12th, there will be a carnival at the JCC for all the children. Proceeds from these two events will go to charity. Don't forget to make your reservations and I hope to see you there.

If you haven't checked out Temple Beth El's website, tbeutica.org, take a look! Thank you to Lois Silverman for keeping it up to date.

Many thanks from Hadassah and the Jewish National Fund for those who planted a tree in Israel for Tu B'Shevat.

Here's to happy thoughts and actions,
Marsha

Temple Beth El Executive Director's Message

Did You Know About Purim

Purim, a holiday that recognizes Esther as our heroine, is a story of romance, loyalty, faith and courage. As in much of our history, we are assured that despite oppression and anti-Semitism the prevailing tyrant, in this case Haman, will ultimately be overthrown.

Purim is a holiday of feasting, costumes, masks, gaiety, noise from the groggers, hat shaped cookies – reminders of Haman's three cornered hat – filled with fruit and poppy seeds, gifts and goodies as directed in the Megillah.

Pious Jews fast on the day before Purim to honor Esther, who did not eat for three days before visiting the King, who she was seeing without being invited. Purim is the only time a Jew is allowed to get so "high" that he literally "does Not Know" the difference between cursed Haman and blessed Mordecai – this is known as Adeloyada – the gay quality of Purim.

So my friends, now that we have shared some facts about Purim, join us at Temple on Saturday March 11th at 6:00 P.M. for Havdallah and the Megillah Reading followed at 6:30 by a Purim Masquerade Party for ADULTS ONLY.

The cost is $36.00 per person if purchased by March 3rd and $40.00 per person if purchased after March 3rd. All tickets MUST be purchased by March 8th.

Happy Purim,
Mundy

We are so sorry.

FINANCIAL HELP FOR SUMMER FUN!

Camping activities, programs and travel with Jewish content can be monumental experiences for our children. With this in mind, the Gennis Incentive Program seeks all local children and young adults, ages 8 through 21, who will be attending a program with Jewish content.

A bequest from the estate of the late Sidney Gennis has set up an "incentive and scholarship fund" designed to help offset the cost of these programs. The estate, through a foundation Gennis created to honor his parents, Celia and Jacob, has given the Jewish Community Federation of the Mohawk Valley a trust to be used to encourage youngsters to seek out Jewish experiences.

To be eligible, you must be a Jewish child residing in the area and your parents must be members of the Jewish Community Federation of the Mohawk Valley (have made a donation to the UJA). To apply for this incentive/scholarship for this summer, you need to submit a letter explaining what program the award will be used for as well as some information about the applicant: name, age, parents, address and telephone. Please submit this letter to the Jewish Federation of the Mohawk Valley, 2310 Oneida St., Utica NY 13501 before April 30, 2017. Applications for fall programs need to be submitted by July 1.

Dear Friends,

As we all know Woman's League is celebrating its 100th Birthday this year. Happy Birthday to all the dedicated women who have made the Woman's League such a wonderful giving, caring group.

Our Temple Beth El Sisterhood in Utica, NY has been a member of the Women's League for 95 years.

This year Temple has enjoyed celebrating one of our members 100th Birthday (however we are so fortunate to have 3 other Sisterhood members that are over 100, Florence Levinson, Mollie Wertheim and Alice Rosen). Our wonderful Millie Rokeach turned 100 on December 25th, all our guests were fortunate enough to celebrate with her at our Chanukah dinner on December 30th.

Millie is a past president of Sisterhood, she has been very active in anything Sisterhood for more than 60 years and she never misses a meeting or a function, Sisterhood, Temple, the JCC or her friend's invitations. She is a past president of The National Council of Jewish Women and Haddasah. She is the most avid reader I have ever known and she has belonged to Book Clubs for as long I can remember. Millie's mind is amazing at the age of 100 Millie often reads a book a day.

Millie is a former Pre-school teacher and has taught many of the men and women in our community who now have or have had children and grandchildren going to pre-school at the JCC. Millie also taught at the Temple Beth El religious school on Genesee Street, in Utica, NY for many years. At our Chanukah dinner Millie was delighted to have her picture taken with a few of her many former students.

Millie is a collector of more than just books, for many years she has built a collection of turtles, not live ones, many made from fabric, sculptured, wearable or just nice to look at, she has all the programs she has written, poems, stories, installations for all her organizations and letters, she has many hats that she always wore and when scarves became the rage Millie had a new collection, many of which she made for herself and others.

All of us who are lucky enough to know Millie know that she has always been a woman of great style, she loves lots of color, jewelry, layers, she always looks bright, very put together and beautiful at 100.

Sometimes we save the best for last, so here is the sum total of Millie.

Millie is the most caring, capable person you will ever hope to meet, her poetry, stories, beautiful notes should be a collection all of their own. Spending time with her is always fun and a learning experience. Her book reviews were enlightening and her smile lights up a room.

How fortunate Temple Beth El is to have Millie as such a prominent part of Temple and Sisterhood, how fitting that the Women's League and Millie will celebrate 100 years together.

Happy Birthday and happy days to our remarkable friend Millie.

Happy 100th Birthday to Millie and Women's League.

Shalom

Mundy Shapiro

Sisterhood Of Temple Beth El Meeting

On Tuesday February 14th Sisterhood had a meeting over a lovely lunch.

Sisterhood of Temple Beth El has been in existence for 95 years; the other day I was looking over some old paperwork and came across a certificate we were given 10 years ago for our 85th anniversary. We have had in the past 95 years much activity and have done a tremendous amount of good for Sisterhood, our Temple and the community.

We hope to be active for many more years and would like the support of our Sisterhood ladies.

We missed some of our members who are lucky enough to be away from our New York winter.
