Temple Beth El Cantor's Message

Most of the time when we read from the Torah, we take out a Torah scroll. One Torah scroll. There are a few occasions throughout the year when we take out two or even three scrolls. When we do, it is because the prescribed readings for that day are in two (or three) different parts of the Torah. While it would be permissible to read them all from a single sefer Torah (especially if that was all that was available), we generally don't for a simple reason: we are respectful of the congregation. By having the different scrolls already set, we avoid making the congregation sit idly while we roll the Torah to the correct place.

What is the most valuable thing any of us has? It is our time. While we do not know how much time any of us has, we do know that our allotment is finite. Consequently, one who wastes my time is stealing my most valued possession. We are commanded not to steal, and this is no less true of people's time. Thus we are solicitous of the congregation's time, even when it relates to waiting for the Torah.

From time to time members will ask me when a particular part of the service will fall. I am usually loath to give a straight answer, as I am not a fan of showing up for a particular part of a service, and this goes double for Bar and Bat Mitzvot! Still, reality being what it is, I often give a ballpark guess.

All of which brings me to the matter of times for services. This bulletin regularly publishes the times that services will be held. On the days when we say Yizkor, it also typically publishes a start time for that part of the service. I understand why this is done; some members have to arrange to take time from work or other activities so as to be able to attend Yizkor. The published times, however are stated given the assumption that there will be a minyan. If there is not a minyan, there is no repetition of the Amidah and no reading of the Torah. We can and do say Yizkor without a minyan, but the lack of a minyan can affect the time it is said by more than a half-hour.

When people show up for Yizkor at the published time, only to find that it was said a half-hour or so earlier, they can be a bit put-out. An obvious corrective would be to let those who showed up at the beginning of the service sit doing nothing for thirty minutes, biding their time until the published time for Yizkor arrives. This would bring us hard up against respecting the congregation's time.

As I see it, there are three possible solutions to this dilemma that respect the time of those who come at the beginning of the service and those who cannot, but wish to attend Yizkor:

1. Make sure we have a minyan at services. Failing that, either
2. Don't publish times for Yizkor, or
3. Publish times based on both presence and lack of minyan.

If you can think of another, please feel free to share it with me.

Cantor Socolof

Temple Beth El President's Message

On June 4th, we held our annual congregational meeting. Those that attended were treated to dinner and time to catch up with other congregants. Thank you to Adele Sossen for serving on the board these past few years. The remaining board members remain the same and I thank them for caring about Temple Beth El.

Thank you to the lay leaders that have filled in on Shabbat while Cantor took some vacation time.

Here is a shout out to those members who will lead our Erev Shabbat summer services or give a drash. Thank you for stepping up to the Bimah. Please check the schedule in this issue of the Temple Times and join us on Friday nights.

The Centennial Committee has met and plans are underway for a festive two days on October 25 and 26th. If you have not sent in your message or ad for the program book, please do so before August 10th.

The ritual committee is organizing the high holiday services. If you would like to partake in the Yom Kippur Torah readings or another part of the service, please contact Mundy to let her know. Cantor has prepared the portions on CD's to help you study.

Congratulations to Eden Knight and Abel Widdiss on celebrating their bat and bar mitzvahs. Mazel Tov to their families.

Mikhail Karyagin is preparing to celebrate his Bar Mitzvah on August 31st.

A reminder to send in your names for the Book of Life and High Holiday greetings!

I hope everyone enjoys the summer.

Temple Beth El Executive Director's Message

Dear Friends,

How quickly this Temple year has gone. It has been a good year, we observed many holidays, festivals, Simchas, and shared events with Temple Emanu-El. We continue to enjoy our 5:30 P.M. Friday night service, and Shabbat services at 9:30 Saturday morning. We would like to see more folks at our Monday and Thursday morning Minyans.

Unfortunately we now have many concerns about safety and security due to tragedies caused by antisemitism in our country and around the world. We are strong, we shall persevere.

We thank our good friend of over 30 years, Cantor Kalman Socolof, who has assumed the job of not only Cantor, but also the responsibility of acting Rabbi. He has done a great job for the Temple and the school.

Our wonderful president, Marsha Silverman is a gem. We are so lucky she likes the job and has been very involved in every aspect of Temple life. We will always be here to support her. Thank you to the Temple Emanu-El staff, Rita and Avlim for making it easy to work together.

We look forward to another very special year as we make plans to observe and celebrate our 100th year of service to the community. Please put October 25th and 26th on your calendar as we share a Simcha of joy, love and so many memories.

I wish you all a wonderful summer, read, relax and always feel welcome at Temple Beth El.

Shalom,
Mundy

Cemetery News

Cleaning Headstones and Footstones

at

Temple Beth El Cemetery

House of Israel Cemetery

Shaarei Tefillah Cemetery

Mason Road Cemetery

Jonathan Lodge Cemetery

It is time to think about cleaning headstones and footstones at our cemeteries.

We are putting 2 benches at the Temple Beth El Cemetery for you to use. If the response is positive we will try adding benches to the other cemeteries as we raise the money.

In the past 4 years we have cleaned 200 + headstones and footstones and what a difference it made. Our cemeteries are beginning to look so beautiful and well cared for. We are so proud of the effort that many families made to beautify their cemetery plots. However there are many more stones that need our tender loving care.

The cost is very reasonable:

- Headstones $50.00
- Footstones $35.00

If you are planning to have your family plot cleaned send a note, send an email or give us a call and we will take care of the rest.

Perhaps you could even send a little extra and have a headstone or footstone cleaned for someone who has no family left to care for their plot.
