Message from Cantor Socolof

Is no news good news?

Have you seen the news from Israel on local media recently? Neither have I. I was, in fact, struck by the utter paucity of stories from Israel in recent weeks. I wrote in this space last November about how we must greet the stories we see with an appreciation for the perspectives, if not agendas, of those who bring us news of the events of the day. That said, those who report the news also have the option of not reporting the news. They get to pick and choose that which will be conveyed, and that which will not.

As I write this in mid-April, the Israeli Defense Forces have recently discovered a new tunnel from Gaza into Israel. The finance minister of Sweden resigned as a result of remarks he made seven years ago likening Israel's treatment of Palestinians to the treatment of Jews by the Nazis. And a member of the Israeli cabinet was outed as eating bread on Passover, upsetting his more observant constituents. Surprised? You are if you rely solely on American media for your Israeli news. Stories such as these are not deemed of sufficient import to fill the scarce and valuable time or space in the news we are given.

I had the occasion to go to Israel a year ago this month. I can assure you that Israelis are continuing to lead their lives and to get by in the day-to-day. Whether we are told about them or not, they are nonetheless persevering in the face of disdain and enmity for continuing to maintain their right to exist.

This month is Yom Ha'atzmaut, Israeli Independence Day. How might we best celebrate that independence? Well, as noted before, we can become well-informed supporters of Israel by making the effort to get information through sources other than the usual media. Most Israeli media have an on-line presence and, while they encourage you to become subscribers, you can generally scan their home page for free and get a good sense of what's going on there.

Better yet, go there and see for yourself. As Woody Allen noted, "Eighty percent of life is showing up." See for yourself how their society works. Hear for yourself what Israelis think about the US and the others in the world. Experience the sights and sounds of the extraordinary routine that is life in Israel. Fortunately, this is being made even easier for us in Utica, as Temple Emanuel is sponsoring a trip to Israel next year. If you have the means and opportunity, sooner is better. If not, please seriously consider joining Rabbi Kail and others in our community so that your personal experience may serve as a rejoinder to not just that which is said about Israel, but that which is not said.

Cantor Socolof

Sisterhood of Temple Beth El

We received a wonderful letter from the Rescue Mission in Utica, thanking us for all our help.

Dear Friends,

At the Rescue Mission of Utica there are many paths towards a new life available to the homeless, hungry, addicted, poor and mentally ill. Because you, and so many others care the Rescue Mission is able to help so many people.

All that we do would not be possible without the support of a very caring community. Thank you for caring about the needs of others and for your gift of various miscellaneous items.

Appreciatively,
Jim Haid
Executive Director

Temple Beth El President's Message

I thought the High Holidays were a busy time of the year! Whew!

The joint fundraiser for Purim was very successful and our religious school students will reap the benefits of your generosity.

Please join us for the tribute to Helen Sperling at 7:30pm on May 4th at the JCC. This will be a unique program, unlike the lectures of the past. The Holocaust Committee has been preparing for months and would like to share this evening with you. In the coming years, the lectures will continue on Yom HaShoah as they have been since 1978. Helen's message of —ever forget" will continue to be presented in the schools.

Now that Passover has been observed, we will be counting the days of the Omer until Shavuot. On Erev Lag B'Omer, May 25th, there will be fun activities and food! Please check out the flier in this issue.

On Sunday, May 15th, we will celebrate Israeli Independence Day. There will be a walk supporting Israel followed by delicious food and music at the JCC. Don't forget to make your reservation!

Shavuot services will be on June 12th at 9:00AM. Following services there will be a choice of study groups and a joint luncheon. Yiskor will be observed on Monday, June 13th with services commencing at 8:00AM.

A special thank you to Mundy, Dori and their assistants for the preparation of the joint Seder.

I would like to give a shout out to Lois Silverman for maintaining the Temple Beth El website. (TBEUTICA.org)

Julie Cain and Michael Silverman are computerizing the cemetery ledgers. This is a time consuming task and many thanks to both of them.

Congratulations to Stephen Rosenfeld who has accepted the presidency of Men's Club.

Shalom my friends,
Marsha

Temple Beth El Executive Director's Message

Dear Friends,

Can you believe you are reading the May Bulletin, time certainly flies and we have been very busy since March.

March we worked to have a successful Thrift Shop. As always it was a big undertaking, but it paid off nicely. Thanks again to all who helped us.

We also shared Purim with Temple Emanu El – The dinner and lovely Purim boxes were enjoyed by many from both Temples.

Our joint Seder led by Cantor Kalman Socolof this year, was delicious and joyous as Seder's should be. The Seder was catered by A Moveable Feast and Patrick and his staff always make everything taste wonderful. I love Passover, it never disappoints me.

May brings us to Lag B'Omer on May 26th. Bar Kochba is one of the great heroes of this holiday. He led the rebellion against the Romans and secured the aid of the revered Rabbi Akiba, who inspired his people to live according to Jewish Law no matter how much they endured by their enemies. Lag B'Omer recalls the last attempt of our ancestors, until 1948, to regain independence as a nation. There is no reference to Lag B'Omer in the prayer book, and there are no special blessings for the occasion.

Please be sure to have May 4th on your calendar. The Helen and Leon Sperling Holocaust lecture will pay tribute to Helen, The Woman Behind the Story.

I join all of you looking forward to a warm and happy Spring. Welcome back to all the snowbirds.

Shalom,
Mundy

Thank you to all the families who purchased Purim Baskets for the entire congregation. The contents were lovely and the hamantashen were delicious.

Sperling Holocaust Lecture to Pay Tribute to Helen: The Woman Behind the Story

This year's Helen and Leon Sperling Holocaust Memorial Lecture and Yom HaShoah Commemoration will be a celebration of the life of Helen Sperling, beloved Holocaust survivor who died at the age of 95 in December. The annual lecture will be held on Wednesday, May 4 at 7:30 pm at the Jewish Community Center, 2310 Oneida Street.

Helen was best known for her tireless work in Holocaust education. For over 45 years, she shared her personal experiences with an estimated 150,000-200,000 people, including students from middle schools, high schools, colleges, and universities, as well as adult groups from churches, businesses, social clubs and the penal system.

Her speech was not one of hatred or anger. The purpose of her talk was to enlighten, to teach with the hope that the horrors that were perpetrated during the Holocaust could be avoided in the future. In 1978, it was Helen and her husband, Leon, who endowed this Holocaust Lecture Series so that their passion for education would continue long into the future.

Because of her tireless efforts, Helen was awarded an Honorary Degree of Doctor of Humane Letters from Colgate University, New York Department of Education's Educator of the Year Award, and awards from the Oneida County Historical Society, the United Way's Interfaith Council, B'nai B'rith and the YWCA. She also received honors from United Jewish Appeal, Israeli Bonds and Hadassah.

This special event will pay homage to the woman behind the story. Through music, videos, and photographs, family members, close friends, students and educators will share their personal stories and remembrances about this miraculous woman who preached love and the understanding that each person's actions can have a valuable effect.

The Entire Jewish Community is Invited to Participate in

Though a common political platform may not be attainable, this course strives to achieve a shared respect for our differences.

Games and Food

It is a mitzvah to count the 49 days from Passover, our liberation from Egypt, to Shavuot—when we received the 10 commandments. This time for introspection is broken by Lag B'Omer, the 33rd day of Omer. It is a festive day on the Jewish calendar, celebrated with picnics and other joyous events! Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai taught: In the merit of celebrating Lag B'Omer, one will be blessed with good health, happiness, prosperity, children and success physically and spiritually.
